CONSTITUTION

OF THE

Society of the Sons of the Revolution

In the State of Colorado.

PREAMBLE.

Whereas, It has become evident from the decline of proper celebration of such National holidays as the Fourth of July, Washington's Birthday, and the like, that popular interest in the events and men of the War of the Revolution is less than in the earlier days of the Republic; and

Whereas, This lack of interest is to be attributed not so much to lapse of time as to the neglect on the part of descendants of Revolutionary heroes to perform their duty of keeping before the public mind the memory of the services of their ancestors, and of the times in which they lived, and of the principles for which they contended;

Therefore, the Society of the "Sons of the Revolution" has been instituted to perpetuate the memory of the men who, in military, naval or civil service, by their acts or counsel, achieved American independence; to promote and assist in the proper celebration of the anniversaries of Washington's Birthday, the Battles of Lexington and Bunker Hill, the Fourth of July, the Capitulations of Saratoga and Yorktown, the formal Evacuation of New York by the British Army, on the 3rd of December, 1783, as a relinquishment of territorial sovereignty, and other prominent events relating to or connected with the War of the Revolution; to collect and secure for preservation the manuscript rolls, records and other documents and memorials relating to that War; to inspire among the members and their descendants the patriotic spirit of their forefathers; to inculcate in the community in general sentiments of nationality and respect for the principles for which the patriots of the Revolution contended; to assist in the commemorative celebration of other great historical events of national importance, and to promote social intercourse and the feeling of fellowship among its members.

ARTICLE I.

Name of Society.

The Society shall be known by the name, style and title of THE SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE REVOLUTION IN THE STATE OF COLORADO.

ARTICLE II.

Membership.

Any male person, above the age of twenty-one years, shall be eligible to membership in the "Sons of the Revolution" who is descended from an ancestor, as the propositus, who, either as a military, naval or marine officer, soldier, sailor, or marine, or official in the service of any one of the thirteen original Colonies or States, or of the National Government representing or composed of those Colonies or States, assisted in establishing American Independence during the War of the Revolution between the 19th day of April, 1775, when hostilities commenced, and the 19th day of April, 1783, when they were ordered to cease.

Provided, That when the claim of eligibility is based on the service of an ancestor in the "minute men" or "militia," it must be satisfactorily shown that such ancestor was actually called into the service of the State or United States, and performed garrison or field duty; and

Provided further, That when the claim of eligibility is based on the service of an ancestor as a "sailor" or "marine," it must in like manner be shown that such service was other than shore duty and regularly performed in the Continental Navy, or the Navy of one of the original thirteen States, or on an armed vessel, other than a merchant ship, which sailed under letters of marque and reprisal, and that such ancestor of the applicant was duly enrolled in the ship's company, either as an officer, seaman, or otherwise than as a passenger; and

Provided further, That when the claim of eligibility is based on the service of an ancestor as an "official," such service must have been performed in the civil service of the United States, or of one of the thirteen original States, and must have been sufficiently important in character to have rendered the official specially liable to arrest and imprisonment, the same as a combatant, if captured by the enemy, as well as liable to conviction of treason against the Government of Great Britain.

Service in the ordinary duties of a civil office, the performance of which did not particularly and effectively aid the American cause, shall not constitute eligibility.

In the construction of this article, the Volunteer Aides de Camp of General Officers in the Continental Service, who were duly announced as such and who actually served in the field during a campaign, shall be comprehended as having performed qualifying service.

The civil officials and military forces of the State of Vermont, during the War of the Revolution, shall also be comprehended in the same manner as if they belonged to one of the thirteen original States.

No service of an ancestor shall be deemed as qualifying service for membership in the "Sons of the Revolution" where such ancestor, after assisting in the cause of American Independence, shall have subsequently either adhered to the enemy, or failed to maintain an honorable record throughout the War of the Revolution.

No person shall be admitted unless he be eligible under one of the provisions of this article, nor unless he be of good moral character and be judged worthy of becoming a member.

ARTICLE III.

Officers.

The officers of the Society of the "Sons of the Revolution" shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Registrar, and a Chaplain, who shall be chosen by ballot at every annual meeting from among the members thereof.

ARTICLE IV.

Board of Managers.

The Board of Managers of the Society shall be fifteen, namely: the President, the Vice President, the Secretary, the Treasurer, the Registrar, and the Chaplain. ex officio, and nine others who shall be chosen by ballot at every annual meeting from among the members of the Society, as follows: At the annual meeting held in February of the year 1900, three for the term of one year, three for the term of two years, and three for the term of three years; and at each annual meeting thereafter, three shall be chosen for the term of three years.

ARTICLE V.

Admission of Members.

Every application for membership shall be made on proper blanks furnished by the Secretary for the purpose, subscribed by the applicant, and approved by two members over their signatures. Applications shall contain or be accompanied by proof of eligibility, and a declaration upon honor that the applicant will, if admitted, endeavor to promote the purposes of the Society and observe its Constitution and By-Laws, and if he be a citizen of the United States, will support the Constitution of the United States; Provided, That members of other State Societies may be admitted on presentation of Certificates of Membership, and filing copy of original application with the Secretary.

Members shall be elected as follows: Candidates shall send their respective applications and documents, through the Secretary, to the Board of Managers, which is authorized to judge of the merits of an application in such manner as it may deem best. Upon a favorable decision of said Board, and upon payment of the initiation fee, applicants shall thereupon become members of the Society.

The President shall annually appoint a Committee on Admissions, consisting of three of the Board of Managers, of which the Secretary shall be a member ex officio, who shall investigate all applications for membership, and report thereon to the Board, who shall vote upon each applicant by ballot or viva voce, two negative votes being sufficient for rejection of an applicant.

ARTICLE VI.

(Amended April 10, 1899, by striking out. Covered by Article V.)

ARTICLE VII.

Institution Considered.

At every meeting the purposes of the Institution will be fully considered and the best measures to promote them adopted. No question, however, involving the party politics of the day within the United States shall ever be discussed or considered in any meeting of the "Sons of the Revolution."

ARTICLE VIII.

Commemorations.

It shall be a standing regulation that the members shall, when practicable, hold a commemorative celebration and dine together at least once every year.

ARTICLE IX.

Seal.

The seal of the Society of the "Sons of the Revolution" shall be one and seven-eighths of an inch in diameter, and shall consist of the figure of a "Minuteman" in Continental uniform, standing on a ladder leading to a belfry, and holding in his left hand a musket and an olive branch, and grasping in his right hand a bell-rope. Above, the cracked "Liberty Bell;" issuing therefrom a ribbon, bearing the motto of the "Sons of the Revolution": "Exegi Monumentum .Ere Perennius." Across the top of the ladder, on a ribbon, the figures "1776," and at the left of the "Minuteman," and also on a ribbon, the figures "1883," the year of the Centennial commemoration of the permanent evacuation by the British Army of American territory; the whole encircled by a band three-eighths of an inch wide; thereon at the top thirteen stars of five points each, and at the bottom the legend, "Sons of the Revolution," the following being a fac-simile thereof:

The Secretary shall be the custodian of the seal, which shall be identical in every particular with this description.

ARTICLE X.

Insignia.

The insignia of the "Sons of the Revolution" shall consist of a badge pendant from the ribbon by a ring of gold.

The badge shall be elliptical in form, with scalloped edges, one and one-quarter inches in length, and one and one-eighth inches in width; the whole surmounted by a gold eagle, with wings displayed, inverted. On the obverse side a medallion of gold in the center, elliptical in form, bearing on its face the figure of a soldier in Continental uniform, with musket slung; beneath, the figures "1775;" the medallion surrounded by thirteen raised gold stars of five points each upon a border of dark blue enamel.

On the reverse side, in the center, a medallion, corresponding in form to that on the obverse, and also in gold, bearing on its face Houdon's portrait of Washington in bas-relief, encircled by the legend: "Sons of the Revolution." Beneath the figures "1883," and upon the reverse of the eagle, the number of the particular badge engraved; the medallion surrounded by a plain gold border conforming in dimensions to the obverse, upon which members may have their names engraved in script.

The ribbon shall be of dark blue, ribbed and watered, edged with buff, one and one-half inches wide and one and one-half inches in displayed length.

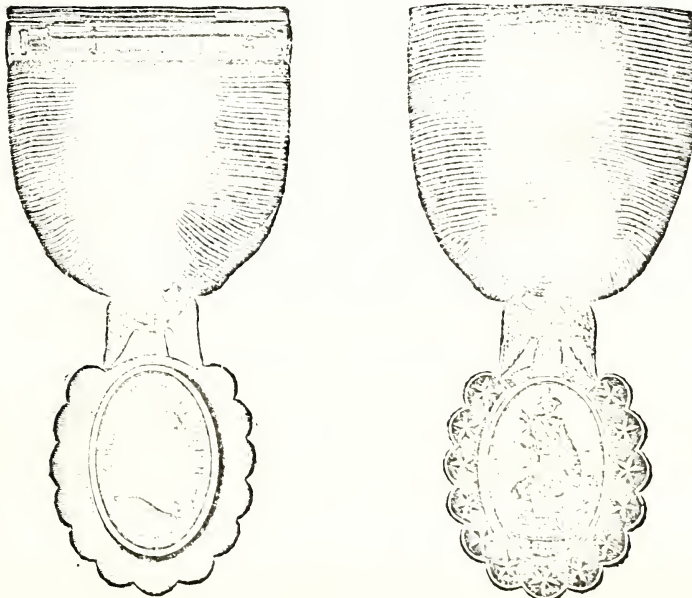

The insignia shall be worn by the members conspicuously, and only on the left breast, on all occasions when they shall assemble as such for any stated purpose or celebration. The badge shall never be worn as an article of jewelry.

The Treasurer of the Society shall procure and issue the insignia to the members and shall keep a record of all issued by him.

Such insignia shall be returned to the Treasurer of the Society by any member who may formally withdraw or resign or be expelled, but otherwise it shall be deemed an heirloom.

No member shall receive more than one badge, unless to replace one, the loss or destruction of which shall first be satisfactorily established.

The following being a fac-simile of such insignia:

On occasions other than the meetings for any stated purpose or celebration, members may wear a rosette of the prescribed ribbon and pattern in the upper button-hole of the left lapel of the coat.

The Treasurer shall procure and issue the rosettes to members.

The following being a fac-simile of the same, which shall not exceed fifteen millimetres in diameter:

ARTICLE XI.

Alterations and Amendments.

No alterations or amendment of the Constitution of this Society shall be made unless notice thereof shall be duly given in writing, signed by the member proposing the same, at a meeting of the Society, nor unless the same shall be adopted at a subsequent meeting, held at least thirty days after such notice, by a vote of three-fourths of the members present.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

Initiation Fees, Dues, Etc.

The initiation fee shall be five (5) dollars; the annual dues three (3) dollars; Provided, That any member who shall have been elected during the last three months of the fiscal year shall not be required to pay the annual dues for the current fiscal year. The payment at one time of fifty (50) dollars shall constitute a life membership. The payment at one time of one hundred (100) dollars shall constitute a perpetual or endowed membership, and upon the death of the member so paying the membership shall be held by his eldest son, or such other descendant from the ancestor from whom he claims as he may nominate; in failure of such nomination having been made, the Society may decide which one of the descendants shall hold the membership; Provided always, That the Society reserves to itself the privilege of rejecting any nomination that may not be acceptable to it. All those holding life or endowed memberships shall be exempt from the payment of the initiation fee and annual dues.

The fiscal year shall begin on the twenty-second day of February in each calendar year.

Any member of another State Society of the Sons of the Revolution, or the Sons of the American Revolution, except a life or endowed member, who becomes a member of this Society, shall be exempt from payment of initiation fee.

The annual dues shall be payable on or before the first day of March in each year.

ARTICLE II.

Permanent Fund.

There shall be a "Permanent Fund," to be derived from life and endowed memberships and from contributions, and to remain forever to the use of the Society, the income only of which shall be expended.

ARTICLE III.

Annual and Special Meetings.

The Society shall hold an annual meeting on the twenty-second day of February, at which a general election of officers and managers by ballot shall take place, except when such day falls on Sunday, in which case the meeting shall be held the following day. In such election a majority of the ballots given for any office shall constitute a choice; but if on the first ballot no person shall receive a majority, then further balloting shall take place, in which a plurality of votes given for any office shall determine choice therefor.

Special meetings shall be held by direction of the Board of Managers, or upon written request of ten members of the Society, at such time and place as the Board may direct.

One week's notice shall be sent every member of all annual or special meetings by mail. At every meeting seven members shall constitute a quorum.

The following order of business shall, as far as applicable, be followed:

1. Meeting called to order by the presiding officer.
2. Prayer by the Chaplain.
3. Reading of minutes of prior meetings not yet acted upon.
4. Election of officers.
5. Communication from or reports of Board of Managers.
6. Reports of officers.
7. Reports of special committees.
8. Unfinished business.
9. Written communications to the Society.
10. Specially noticed business.
11. Miscellaneous business.
12. Closing prayer by the Chaplain.

ARTICLE IV.

President.

The President, or, in his absence, the Vice President, or, in his absence, a chairman pro tempore, shall preside at all meetings of the Society and of the Board of Managers, and shall execute the usual functions of a presiding officer, under general parliamentary rules, subject to an appeal to the Society, in proper cases under those rules. The President shall be, ex officio, a member of all committees other than the Committee on Nominations. He shall have power to convene the Board of Managers, and appoint the place of such meeting when called by him.

He shall also perform such other representative duties on behalf of the Society, either personally or by correspondence, as it or the board of Managers may find desirable or necessary, or as customarily appertains to his office, and he shall enforce a strict observance of the Constitution and By-Laws of the Society.

In case of his decease, resignation, neglect to serve, or inability from any cause to act as President, the duties of the office shall devolve on the Vice President, until the vacancy caused by such decease, resignation or neglect to serve shall be filled, or until the inability shall cease.

ARTICLE V.

Secretary.

The Secretary shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society and keep a record thereof. He shall notify all qualified and accepted candidates of their admission, and perform such other duties as the Society, or Board of Managers, or his office, may require of him. He shall have charge of the seal, By-Laws, historical and other documents and records of the Society other than those required to be deposited with the Registrar and Historian, and shall affix the seal to all properly authenticated certificates of membership, and transmit the same without delay to the member for whom it was issued, or to his proper representative. He, together with the presiding officer, shall certify all acts of the Society, and in proper cases authenticate them under seal. He shall have charge of all printing and publications directed by the Society or by the Board of Managers. He shall give due notice of the time and place of all meetings of the Society and of the Board of Managers, and shall attend the same. He shall keep fair and accurate records of all the proceedings and orders of the Society and of the Board of Managers, and shall give notice to the several officers of all votes, orders, resolves, and proceedings of the Society or the Board of Managers, affecting them or appertaining to their respective duties; and at the annual meeting, and oftener, if required, shall report to the Society the names of those candidates who have been admitted to membership, and also the names of those members whose resignations or voluntary withdrawals have been consented to and accepted, and also the names of those members who have been expelled, or dropped for non-payment of dues, or who have been received or dropped from the roll by transfer since the last report. In his absence from any meeting, a Secretary pro tempore may be designated therefor.

ARTICLE VI.

Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society. Out of these funds he shall pay such sums only as may be ordered by the Society or by the Board of Managers, and shall perform such other duties as the Society, or Board of Managers, or his office, may require of him. He shall keep a true account of his receipts and payments, and at each annual meeting render the same to the Society, with a full statement of the financial condition of the Society, when a committee shall be appointed to audit his accounts. For the faithful performance of his duty he shall give such security as the Society or the Board of Managers shall require.

ARTICLE VII.

Registrar.

The Registrar shall have possession of all documents pertaining to the descent of members of the Society. He shall also keep an accurate Register of Members of the Society. He shall be custodian of all books and other historical documents that may come into possession of the Society, and act as Historian and Necrologist of the Society, unless the Board of Managers appoint a special one.

ARTICLE VIII.

Chaplain.

The Chaplain shall be a regularly ordained minister of a Christian denomination, and shall perform such duties as ordinarily appertain to such office.

ARTICLE IX.

Board of Managers.

The Board of Managers shall judge of the qualifications of every candidate who shall make proper application for admission to the Society, and shall have power to admit him to membership therein, if found eligible under the Constitution of this Society. Two negative votes shall be a rejection of the applicant.

They may, through the Secretary, call special meetings of the Society at such times as they may see fit; and they may arrange for commemorative celebrations by the Society.

They shall recommend plans to the Society for promoting its purposes, and, when practicable, may digest and prepare business for its meetings, and shall supervise all publications issued in its name, and decide whether copies of records or other documents or papers may be furnished on request of any party in cases not pertaining directly to the business of the Society and the proper conduct of its affairs.

They shall generally superintend the interests, and shall have the control and management of the affairs and funds of the Society. They shall also perform such duties as may be prescribed by the Constitution and By-Laws or required by any standing rule or resolve of the Society; Provided, however, That they shall at no time be required to take any action or contract any debt for which they shall be jointly or severally liable. They shall be competent to consent to and accept the resignation or voluntarily withdrawal from membership of any enrolled member of the Society.

They may require the attendance of any member of the Society, or any official or committee thereof, at any meeting, for consultation and advice.

The Board of Managers shall meet as often as they desire, or at the call of the President, or upon the written request of any three members of the same addressed to the Secretary.

Five of the Board of Managers shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

At every annual meeting they shall submit to the Society a general report of their proceedings during the year then closing, and at such other time as may be required by the Society.

ARTICLE X.

Expulsion or Suspension.

The Board of Managers shall have power to expel any enrolled member of this Society who, by conduct inconsistent with a gentleman and a man of honor, or by an opposition to the interests of the community in general or of this Society in particular, may render himself unworthy to continue a member, or who shall persistently transgress, or, without good excuse, wilfully neglect or fail in the performance of any obligation enjoined by the Constitution or By-Laws or any standing rule of this Society; Provided, That such member shall have received at least ten days' notice of the complaint preferred against him, and of the time and place for hearing the same, and has been thereby afforded an opportunity to be heard in person.

Whenever the cause of expulsion shall not have involved turpitude nor moral unworthiness, any member thus expelled may, upon the unanimous recommendation of the Board of Managers, but not otherwise, be restored to membership by the Society at any meeting.

The Board of Managers shall also have power to drop from the roll the name of any enrolled member of the Society who shall be at least two years in arrears in the payment of dues, and who, on notice to pay the same, shall fail and neglect to do so within ten days thereafter, and upon being thus dropped his membership shall cease and determine; but he may be restored to membership at any time by the Board of Managers on his application therefor, and upon his payment of all such arrears, and of the annual dues from the date when he was dropped to the date of his restoration. The Board of Managers may also suspend any officer from the performance of his duties for cause, which proceeding must be reported to the Society and acted upon by it within thirty days, either by rescission or removal of the suspended officer from office, or otherwise the suspension shall cease.

ARTICLE XI.

Vacancies and Terms of Office.

Whenever an officer of this Society shall die, resign, or neglect to serve, or be suspended, or be unable properly to perform the duties of his office, by reason of absence, sickness, or other cause, and whenever an office shall be vacant, which the Society shall not have filled by an election, the Board of Managers shall have power to appoint a member to such office pro tempore, who shall act in such capacity until the Society shall elect a member to the vacant office, or until the inability due to "suspension, absence, sickness, or other cause" shall cease; Provided, however, That the office of President or Secretary shall not be thus filled by the Board of Managers when there shall be a Vice President or Assistant Secretary to enter upon the duties of those offices respectively.

In like manner, the Board of Managers may supply vacancies among its members under the same conditions and limitations; and in case any member thereof, other than an officer, shall be absent from three consecutive meetings of the same, his place therein may be declared vacant by the Board of Managers, and filled by an appointment which shall continue in full effect until the Society shall elect a successor.

Subject to these provisions, all officers of the Society, and the members of the Board of Managers, shall, from the time of their election or appointment, continue in their respective offices until the next Annual Meeting, and until their respective successors shall be duly chosen.

ARTICLE XII.

Resignation.

No resignation or voluntary withdrawal of membership of any member enrolled in this Society shall become effective as a release from the obligations thereof, unless consented to and accepted by the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE XIII.

Disqualification.

No person who may be enrolled as a member of this Society shall be permitted to continue in membership where the proof of claim or qualification by descent shall be found to be defective and insufficient to substantiate such claim or not properly authenticated. The Society, or the Board of Managers, may, at any time after six weeks' notice to such person to properly substantiate his claim, require the Secretary to erase his name from the list of members, and such person shall thereupon cease to be a member, provided he shall have failed to comply satisfactorily with such notice. Such person shall have a right of appeal to the next annual meeting of the Society, but he shall not be restored to membership unless by a three-fourths vote of the members present on that occasion, or at a subsequent meeting to which communication of the appeal shall have been specifically postponed.

ARTICLE XIV.

Recommendation of Candidates.

No member shall approve an application for membership in this Society unless he shall know the candidate to be worthy, and shall have satisfied himself by due examination of proofs that such candidate is eligible, and will, if admitted, be a desirable member.

ARTICLE XV.

Service of Notices.

It shall be the duty of every member to inform the Secretary, by written communication, of his place of residence, and any change thereof, and of his postoffice address.

Service of any notice under this Constitution or By-Laws upon any member of the Society, addressed to him at the last recorded place of residence or postoffice address, and forwarded by mail, shall be deemed sufficient service of such notice.

ARTICLE XVI.

Certificate of Membership.

Every member shall be entitled to receive a certificate of membership, which shall be authenticated by the President and Secretary, and countersigned by the Registrar of the Society, and to which the seal of the Sons of the Revolution shall be affixed. The certificate shall be in form following:

ARTICLE XVII.

Decease of Members.

Upon decease of any member residing in the State of Colorado, notice thereof, and of the time and place of the funeral, shall be given by the Secretary, and it shall thereupon become the duty of the members, when practical, to attend the obsequies.

Any member, upon being informed of the decease of a member, shall make it his business to see that the Secretary is promptly notified of the fact.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Amendments.

No amendment or alteration of these By-Laws shall be made unless notice thereof shall be duly given in writing signed by the member proposing the same, at a meeting of the Society, nor unless the same shall be adopted at a subsequent meeting held at least thirty days after such notice, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

Instructions to Applicants.

All applications must be presented in duplicate, upon the forms issued by the Society.

The record of the ancestor's military service should be given fully, but concisely. Services to be shown by proof, not tradition.

In referring to printed works, the volume and page should be given, and, if possible, a copy of the part referred to certified as a true copy by a notary.

Reference to authorities, in manuscript, must be accompanied by certified copies.

When descent is claimed from more than one Revolutionary ancestor, "Supplementary" applications may be made in duplicate, in form as in original. No extra cost for filing same.

To begin to make a search for proofs, the applicant must know the State the ancestor served from, and in writing officials simply ask "for the military service of A. B., said to have been a soldier in the Revolutionary War," and they will inform you of any data the records show. Also, give the name of town or county he served from, if you know. Correspond with the following officials and others named, in the various States, for certificates of military service:

VERMONT—Write General T. S. Peck, Adjutant General, Montpelier. No charge for making research, but where name is found, the charge for certified record is from $1 to $3, according to amount of labor required.

NEW HAMPSHIRE—This State has published a very complete Roster, in four volumes. In Society's Library; also Public Library.

MASSACHUSETTS—Write Hon. Wm. M. Olin, Secretary of State, Boston. No charge for making research, but where name is found the charge is $1 for furnishing certificate. The records are now being printed. First 10 volumes now in Society's Library, and as printed will be placed in such Library.

RHODE ISLAND—Write Hon. Charles P. Bennett, Secretary of State, Providence. No charge for making research, but where name is found the charge is $1.50 for furnishing certified record. Some records in State Library at Capitol.

CONNECTICUT—This State has published a very complete Roster, containing 27,000 names, which volume is in the Society's Library and also in Public Library.

NEW YORK—This State has published a Roster, containing 40,000 names, which volume is in the Society's Library.

NEW JERSEY—Very complete records. Write General Wm. S. Stryker, Adjutant General, Trenton. No charge for making research or furnishing certificate.

PENNSYLVANIA—Write Dr. Wm. H. Egle, State Librarian, Harrisburg, who will cause a search to be made, the fee for which will be $2, and if the name is found and a certificate furnished, $1 more. Society's Library, through kindness of J. C. Butler, has most of Pennsylvania printed records.

DELAWARE—Write Hon. John D. Hawkins, Secretary of State, Dover. The charge for furnishing records is two cents per line, and $1 additional for certificate.

MARYLAND—Write Hon. Wm. O. Mitchell, Annapolis, Commissioner of the Land Office, who will make research for 25 cents, and 75 cents additional for furnishing certificate.

VIRGINIA—The Revolutionary records of this State are meager, and consist mainly of land bounty warrants which were issued to soldiers who had served three years or more. Write Mr. W. G. Stanard, 314 West Cary street, Richmond, a gentleman who has given considerable attention to tracing Virginia genealogies. He will make research of everything available at the State capitol at a cost of $1 in advance, with an extra cost of $1.50 for furnishing certificate. The United States pension roll contains the names of many Virginia soldiers.

NORTH CAROLINA—The Revolutionary rolls of this State are meager. Mr. T. P. Jerman, Chief Clerk in the State Auditor's Department, Raleigh, N. C., will search for name, and if found will furnish a certificate for $5. No charge unless certificate is made.

SOUTH CAROLINA—Among the troops furnished by this State were ten regiments of Militia and four Continental Regiments, besides numerous bands of partisan rangers, as those composing the commands of Marion and Sumpter. But the State has no rosters of these troops, and the principal records preserved are those of officers. General W. G. De Sasure has published a pamphlet containing "The names, as far as can be ascertained, of the officers who served in the South Carolina regiments" (reprinted in the Charleston Year Book, 1893).

GEORGIA—Write Wm. Harden, Secretary Georgia Historical Society, Savannah, for information of Georgia soldiers.

PENSIONS.

There were no National pension laws until the year 1818, excepting for the relief of those disabled in the service. This act granted pensions to those only who had served nine months or more in the Continental Army or Navy (not to be confounded with the State troops, Militia or Minutemen). Under this act about eight thousand applied for pensions, which number so alarmed Congress that it passed, in 1820, what became known as the "Alarm" act, which required that before the beneficiaries of the act of 1818 could longer receive its benefits they must go before some court and make a schedule of their property, and affirm that they were in "need of the assistance of their country for a support."

The number of pensioners having become reduced, Congress in 1832 passed an act granting pensions to all officers and soldiers, whether Continental, State or Militia, who had served for any period not less than six months.

The widows of Revolutionary soldiers drew pensions, provided they were married prior to 1853, so that the military record of the soldier who did not draw a pension himself can be found through the papers filed by the widow.

The applicant can write the Honorable Commissioner of Pensions, at Washington, asking if his ancestor was pensioned, and, if so, for a copy of the ancestor's military history. There is no cost attached for obtaining this data.

A mistaken idea prevails that there is on file in the Adjutant General's office, complete Rosters of the soldiers of the Revolutionary War, and that it is only necessary to write to that department to obtain a record of the ancestor's service. There are no complete rosters of the Revolutionary soldiers in any department of the Government, nor anywhere else.

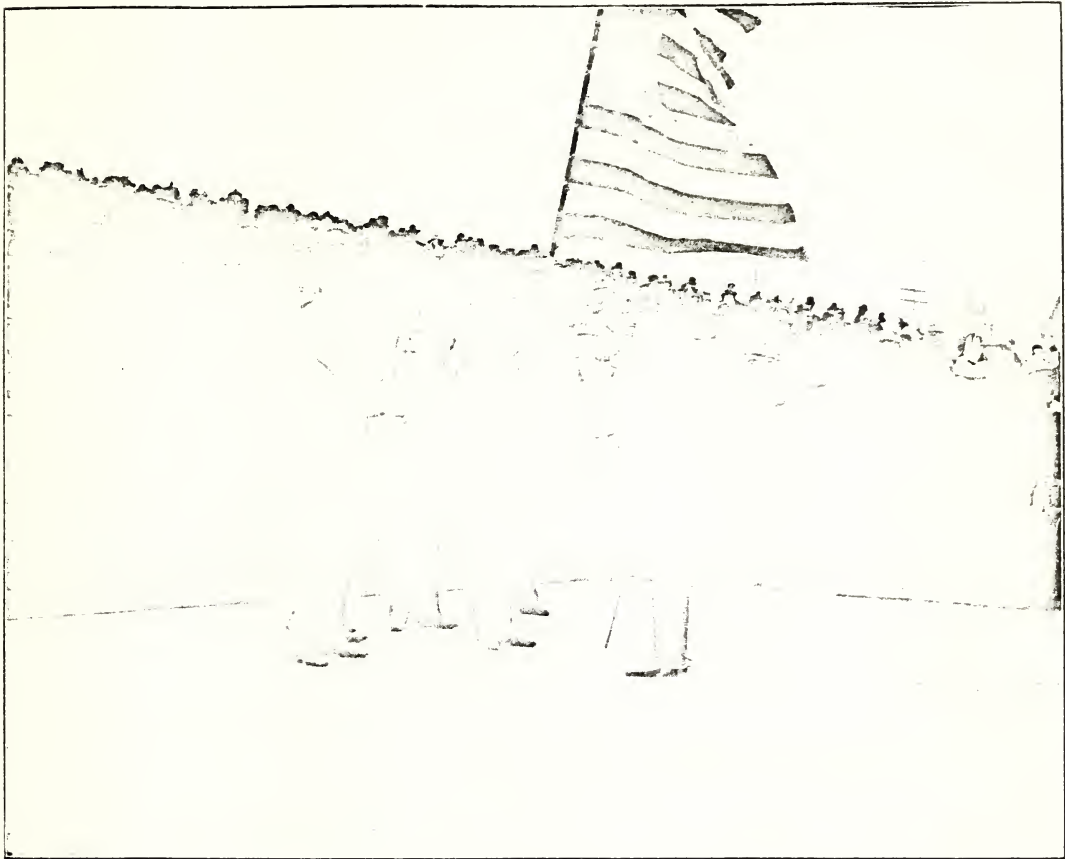

The records remaining in the different departments at Washington, containing the rosters of the Revolutionary soldiers, have been transferred to the charge of Colonel F. C. Ainsworth, U. S. Army, Chief Record and Pension Office, War Department, Washington, D. C., who will furnish free of charge the record of any soldier whose name may be found on the rolls in his office.

The applicant, in his request for information, must give the name of the State his ancestor served from, also give the relationship of the ancestor to the applicant, and the purpose for which he desires the information.

The Secretary of The Colorado Society makes no charge for an examination of the volumes or documents in the library of the Society, and will cheerfully assist applicants to obtain the proofs of ancestor's service.

FLAG PRESENTATION TO FIRST COLORADO VOLUNTEERS, 14TH DAY OF MAY, 1898.

A Brief History of the Colorado Society.

BY SANFORD CHARLES HINSDALE.

On the twenty-second day of February, 1892, the following named Organization, gentlemen met at the office of Dr. Persifor M. Cooke, 1624 Welton street, ^{1892.} Denver, and effected the temporary organization of The Society of the Sons of the Revolution in the State of Colorado: John Franklin Spalding, Thomas Henry Edsall, C. S. Watkins, Persifor Marsden Cooke, Hedley Vicars Cooke, Sanford Charles Hinsdale and Edward Marsden Cooke.

On April fifth, following, at a meeting of the Society held at the same place, the following named gentlemen were duly admitted to membership and declared to be charter members of the Society: John Franklin Spalding, Thomas Henry, Edsall, Persifor Marsden Cooke, Hedley Vicars, Cooke, Nathaniel Peter Hill, Allan Hyre Jackson, John Boyd Vroom, John Nicoll Vroom, Cyrus Townsend Brady, Rawson Fuller Watkins, Fred S. Watkins, William Marvin Spalding, Franklin Spencer Spalding, Edward Marsden Cooke, Clarence Edsall, Orlando Blodgett Wilcox, Sanford Charles Hinsdale, Edward Lane Raymond and John Lloyd McNeil. These gentlemen, at this time, signed their names to a memorial to the General Society, requesting admission of the Colorado Society as a constituent part of the General Society. In reply to such memorial the following letter was received:

"General Society, May 24, 1892.

"Persifor M. Cooke, M. D.:

"I have the honor to inform you that at the meeting of the General Society, Sons of the Revolution, held in Trenton, N. J., on Saturday, April 23, 1892, The Society, Sons of the Revolution, in the State of Colorado, was, on motion, unanimously admitted as a member of the General Society.

"Yours very faithfully,

"JAMES MORTIMER MONTGOMERY,

"General Secretary."

Annual Meetings.

At a meeting held June 15, 1892, the Society was permanently organized and officers elected to serve until the next regular annual meeting to be held February 22, 1893, on which date a goodly number of the members met at the Brown Palace Hotel, Denver, and held their first annual meeting, elected officers for the ensuing year, and partook of a dinner. Since that time the Society has met regularly on the anniversary of Washington's birthday, elected its officers, listened to reports and patriotic speeches, and a dinner or luncheon served to its members. These meetings have always been social reunions of a patriotic nature, the business portion occupying a small part of the time.

Religious Services.

The Society has also held each year, on a Sunday evening occurring nearest to the 22nd of February, a commemorative religious service consisting of a sermon, patriotic addresses and music, on which occasion prizes are awarded to the successful contestants for prize essays.

Prize Essays.

At the first annual meeting was originated the plan, since so successfully carried out, of offering prizes annually to the High Schools, Colleges and seventh and eighth grade pupils of the State for the two most meritorious essays bearing upon the history of the American Revolution.

Prizes.

The first prize is a silver medal, the face being a fac-simile of the seal of the Society; on the reverse, an appropriate inscription, with the recipient's name. The medal is suspended by a buff and blue ribbon (the Society's colors) from a silver bar, bearing the word "Colorado." The second prize is a fac-simile of the first in bronze.

This plan has met with great favor in many other states, and has been adopted by them with most satisfactory results.

The subject of the essay for 1893-4 was "The Causes That Led Up to the War of the American Revolution." First prize, Edward L. Kraemer, High School, District No. 2, Denver. Second prize, Chester Smith, High School, District No. 1, Denver.

The subject for 1894-5 was "Alexander Hamilton—His Services in the Revolutionary War, and in the Formation of the Constitution." First prize, Florence L. Jones, Wolfe Hall, Denver. Second prize, Leota Larimer, High School, District No. 2, Denver.

The subject for 1895-6 was "The Articles of Confederation and Federal Union Adopted by the Continental Congress, July 9, 1778—Their Weakness and Defects." First prize, Andrew S. Clark, Jarvis Hall, Montclair. Second prize, Samuel H. Crosby, Grant High School, District No. 7, South Denver.

The subject for 1896-7 was "Foreign Aid to American Patriots in the War of the Revolution." First prize, Joseph H. Gordon, High School, Fort Collins. Second prize, Millie H. Betts, High School, District No. 2, Denver.

The subject for 1897-8 was "The American Navy in the War of the Revolution." First prize, Earl H. Smith, High School, District No. 2, Denver. Second prize, Euna Pearl Kelly, High School, Colorado Springs.

The subject for 1898-9 was "The Heroes of the Revolution—Which Two Merited the Greatest Fame?" First prize, Euna Pearl Kelly, Colorado Springs High School. Second prize, Meade McMechen, High School, District No. 2, Denver.

The subject for 1899-1900 was "The Aid Rendered by Privateers in the War of the Revolution."

The essays submitted have been many and have shown a high degree of scholarship, and the Society feels that the result has been satisfactory. Owing to this fact, the work of the committee in selecting the prize winners has each year been difficult. In 1898 the Society decided to print and publish the prize essays each year.

On Monday evening, December 4, 1893, the Society celebrated the 110th anniversary of Washington's farewell to his officers, this being also the tenth anniversary of the founding of the General Society. The chief feature of the evening was an historical and most interesting address by the late Thomas H. Edsall of Colorado Springs, who was one of the founders of the General Society in 1883, and a member of the Colorado Society.

Washington's
Farewell to his Officers.

February 22, 1894, at the regular annual meeting of the Society at the Albany Hotel, Denver, it was resolved to celebrate the coming 14th day of June as Flag Day, and a committee, of which Mr. Ralph Voorhees was chairman, was appointed to form and carry out a program. May 22, 1894, a committee was appointed to frame a bill to be presented to the next General Assembly of the State of Colorado prohibiting the display of any foreign flag from any public buildings of the State, or from the public buildings of any corporate municipality within the State. The bill so framed became a law of the State. June 14, 1894, was the first celebration of Flag Day by the Society. In the evening, at the Central Presbyterian Church, Denver, a handsome silken flag was presented to the Society by its first president, Hon. N. P. Hill, which was received by the Society in an eloquent address by Hon. C. S. Thomas. This beautiful emblem is one of the special treasures of the Society.

Flag Day,
1894.

November 25, 1894, was the anniversary of the evacuation by the British from New York in 1783, and the Society celebrated this event on Monday, the 26th, at the First Congregational Church, Denver. This was a joint celebration with the Daughters of the Revolution. A special feature was the presentation to the Society by Mrs. N. P. Hill of a handsome gavel made of wild cherry cut from the Mt. Vernon estate, mounted with Colorado silver and engraved "Sons of the Revolution."

Evacuation
Day, 1894.

February 22, 1895, on invitation of the Daughters of the Revolution, the Society met at the house of Hon. N. P. Hill, where they were tendered a most pleasing and elegant entertainment, consisting of music, patriotic speeches and readings, together with a social reception and refreshments.

Entertainment,
1895.

Flag Day,
1895.

June 14, 1895, the Society held its second anniversary of Flag Day at City Park, Denver. This proved to be the most enthusiastic demonstration of its kind ever witnessed in Denver. It was the 118th anniversary of the adoption by the Continental Congress of the stars and stripes as our national emblem. Fully 20,000 children walked in procession beneath the folds of "Old Glory," each carrying a flag. It was computed that 50,000 of Denver's citizens assembled in the park to do honor to the occasion. The celebration was held jointly with the Daughters of the Revolution and the Arapahoe County Sunday School Association. The Roman Catholic, Hebrew and colored Sunday Schools heartily joined in the celebration. It is but just to record that great credit must be awarded to Mr. Ralph Voorhees, chairman of the committee, for his untiring effort in making this celebration a complete success. It was a day long to be remembered, especially by the children of the city.

"America,"

Prior to this and in March, 1895, Mr. Ralph Voorhees received from Mr. Samuel Francis Smith, the author of the hymn, "America," a fine autograph copy of this hymn written March 13, 1895, the original of which was composed and written in February, 1832. This copy is a valued treasure of the Society, and withal timely, as the celebrated author died November 16, 1895, at the age of eighty-seven. This autograph copy has been stereotyped and copies were liberally distributed at our Flag Day celebration.

"While through the land his strains resound,
What added fame can love impart
To his, who touched the string that found
Its echoes in a nation's heart!"

Since then the Society has in like manner celebrated Flag Day on June 14 at the City Park, Denver, and with great success. It has, through the Society's efforts, become a day to which the children of the city look forward with pleasure, and they enjoy it thoroughly. All parents and children of whatsoever faith or color are cordially invited to join with us in doing honor to the flag of our common country by their presence at the park.

Entertainment,

February 22, 1896, in the evening, at the Brown Palace Hotel, the Society tendered a notable entertainment to its members and to the Daughters of the Revolution. A principal feature was the presentation to the Society by our retiring president, Hon. James Benton Grant, of a magnificent silken Society banner, borne by an oaken staff and surmounted by a golden eagle. The presentation speech in behalf of the donor was by Henry Myron Blackmer of Colorado Springs, and the banner was accepted on behalf of the Society in an appropriate speech by William Henry Bryant. The music, speeches and social entertainment were all of a high order, and not soon to be forgotten by those present.

On Wednesday evening, November 15, 1896, the Society, with other hereditary societies of Denver, celebrated Evacuation Day at Trinity Methodist Church, this being the 113th anniversary of the evacuation of the British from New York. The exercises consisted of patriotic speeches and music. Evacuation Day, 1896.

March 29, 1897, the Colorado Society was duly incorporated under the laws of this State, articles being filed with the Secretary of State on that day. Incorporation, 1897.

February 22, 1898, the annual meeting was held and a dinner given at the Windsor Hotel, Denver, at which the newly-elected president, Mr. John Cromwell Butler, presented four well-preserved parchment commissions containing the autograph signatures of G. Washington, Th. Jefferson, James Madison and James Monroe, Presidents, and of J. Knox, M. Dearborn, W. Eustis and J. C. Calhoun, Secretaries of War of the United States. Later Mr. Butler presented the Society with a fine steel plate engraving of the Battle of Bunker Hill. Gifts, 1898.

April 19, 1898, Lexington Alarm Day was celebrated by a social gathering and a lunch at the Windsor Hotel, Denver. About forty members were present and brief speeches were made. Lexington Alarm Day, 1898.

December 21, 1898, the Society invited to Denver and entertained Lieutenant Richmond Pearson Hobson, the hero of "Merrimac" fame. A reception was given at the Brown Palace Hotel, followed by a dinner, at which the members of the Society had the pleasure of listening to an address by Lieutenant Hobson and taking him by the hand. Toasts and speeches relating to the Spanish-American war were the features of the occasion. Reception to Lieut. Hobson, 1898.

May 14, 1898, the occasion being the departure of the First Regiment Colorado Volunteers for the Philippines, the Society, in honor of the regiment, erected on the capitol grounds a large flag staff and attached a fine American flag, which was kept flying during the absence of the regiment. Whenever, from time to time, news was received of the death of any member of the regiment, the Society placed on the flag-staff a memorial brazen tablet containing the name of the soldier and the date of his death. Forty-six names have thus from time to time been placed on this roll of honor. Honors to Colorado Soldiers, 1898.

Nine members of the Colorado Society volunteered for service in the war with Spain. Their names and rank are as follows: Members in the War.

CHARLES HENRY ANDERSON, Major, First Regiment Colorado Volunteers.

DAVID LAW FLEMING, Chaplain, First Regiment Colorado Volunteers.

CLAYTON PARKHILL, Surgeon, First Regiment Colorado Volunteers, afterwards promoted to Chief Surgeon of Volunteers with rank of Major, First Division, First Army Corps, in expedition to Porto Rico.

CHARLES EDWARD HOOPER, Lieutenant, Company "B," and Adjutant, First Battalion, First Regiment Colorado Volunteers.

HENRY B. TEDROW, Private, Troop "B," First Squadron of Cavalry, Colorado National Guard; assigned to Second Regiment U. S. Volunteer Cavalry, Colonel Jay L. Torrey.

MATT RUSSELL ROOT, First Sergeant of Troop "B" in Torrey's Regiment of "Rough Riders;" promoted to Assistant Surgeon with rank of First Lieutenant.

* THOMAS WALN-MORGAN DRAPER, Captain, Second U. S. Engineers.

* SAMUEL WILEY BELFORD, Assistant Adjutant General with rank of Captain, on staff of Major-General Elwell S. Otis.

* HERBERT ROWAN BELFORD, Sergeant, Chaffee Light Artillery. Fortunately the Society has not been called upon to mourn the loss by death of any of the above members.

Flag Presentation Colorado
Volunteers,
1898.

May 14, 1898, the Society presented to the First Regiment, Colorado Volunteers, a handsome silk flag, bearing on its folds the words, "1st Regt. Colorado Inf. Volunteers," and on its staff the words, "Presented by the Colorado Society Sons of the Revolution." The presentation took place on the capitol grounds, Denver, amid a vast concourse of people, the Regiment, about to leave for the Philippines, being present. The presentation speech was by Vice-President Joel F. Vaile, and the flag was received in behalf of the Regiment in an appropriate speech by its Colonel, Irving Hale, who was afterwards created Brigadier-General. In the course of his address these words, which received their fulfillment, were uttered by Mr. Vaile: "The Colorado Society, Sons of the Revolution, presents you this emblem of your country's honor and strength. We expect to see it again, upon your return. To the physical eye its colors may not then appear so brilliant as now. It may show the rents and scars of battle. But we expect to see it radiant with a record of great deeds, bravely done by noble men." We did indeed see this flag again, or rather a remnant of it, when the Regiment returned and proudly marched through the streets of Denver on the 14th day of September, 1899, with this tattered emblem borne aloft at its head. The flag was torn by the enemy's shot and shell. But few stars were left and the imagination must supply many of the stripes. It received its baptism of fire in the Philippines. In every battle and skirmish in which the Regiment was engaged, and they were many, this flag appeared at the head of the column. When the Regiment, on its return, landed in this country and marched through the streets of San Francisco, the ovation given to this flag by the people along the line of march was such as has been rarely, if ever, witnessed. New and unsoiled flags of other regiments were hardly noticed, while this ragged remnant was cheered to the echo. A second ovation of like nature was accorded the flag when the Regiment reached Denver, where a special detail of police was necessary to guard its tattered folds from patriotic vandalism. This was the first American flag raised within the limits of Manila. The following letter from Brigadier-General Hale speaks for itself:

* Membership in Society ceased January, 1899.

Denver, Colorado,
September 10th, 1899.
Colorado Society,
Sons of the Revolution,
Gentlemen:
I have the honor to inform you that the flag presented by your Society on May 14th, 1898 to the
First Regiment Colorado Infantry,
U. S. Volunteers was the first United States flag raised within the limits of the City of Manila at the time of its capture by our troops,
August 13th, 1898.
Very respectfully,
J. M. Hale
Brig. Gen. U. S. V.

The bearer of this flag, from the time it left Denver until the remnant of it was returned, was Richard Holmes, nearly seven feet in height and straight as an arrow. He many times escaped death as by a miracle. The return and presentation to the State of this tattered ensign was a most thrilling spectacle. It remains in the office of the Adjutant-General, inclosed in a glass case.

Memorial Services.

On Sunday afternoon, September 17, 1899, thousands of Denver's patriotic citizens gathered on the State capitol grounds to take part in the memorial services in honor of those soldiers who laid down their lives in the Philippines. The exercises were under the auspices of the Colorado Society and the following program was carried out:

- Music.....Band of First Regiment Infantry, Colorado Volunteers
- Presiding officer.....John Cromwell Butler
President Sons of the Revolution.
- Prayer.....Rev. David Law Fleming
Chaplain First Regiment Colorado Volunteers.
Chaplain Sons of the Revolution.
- Display of flag.....Color Bearer Richard Holmes
- Address.....Brigadier-General Irving Hale, U. S. V.
- Address.....Ralph Voorhees
- Address.....Colonel Henry B. McCoy, N. S. V.
Member Sons of the Revolution.
- Music.
- Address.....U. S. Senator Henry M. Teller
Member Sons of the Revolution.
- Music.
- Memorial address....Rev. Thomas E. Green, D. D., of Cedar Rapids, Iowa
Member Iowa Society Sons of the Revolution.
- Music.
- Address.....Hon. Charles S. Thomas
Governor of Colorado.
- Benediction.....Rev. George Bedel Vosburgh
Pastor First Baptist Church.

Entertainment of the General Society.

The memorial address by Rev. Thomas E. Green was a most eloquent and masterful tribute to the prowess and bravery of the dead, and a well-deserved encomium of the returning soldiers.

April 18, 19 and 20, 1899, the General Society, on invitation of the Colorado Society, held its third Triennial Meeting in Denver. On the 18th the guests were given a carriage ride through the principal business and residence portions of the city and to the Omaha and Grant Smelter. In the evening the Daughters of the Revolution gave a reception to the Colorado Society and guests at the house of Governor Charles S. Thomas, which was a great success and largely attended.

April 19, 1899, the General Society held its regular Triennial business meeting at the Brown Palace Hotel. In the evening a banquet in the ordinary of the hotel was tendered by the Colorado Society to the visiting delegates. Of the menu it need only be said that it was worthy of the Colorado Society. The large dining hall was handsomely decorated with flags, bunting and flowers. Joel F. Vaile, Vice-President of the Colorado Society, presided at this most distinguished assemblage, and acted as toast-master. The addresses in response to toasts were most eloquent and entertaining, and listened to with rapt attention.

April 20, 1899, the Colorado Society tendered to the visiting delegates a railway trip by special train to Silver Plume and around the "Loop," of which nearly all availed themselves.

Everything connected with the entertainment of the guests seemed to be a success, and the Colorado Society received from its visitors many expressions of gratitude for the pleasure given them.

Beginning in 1892 with nineteen members, the present roster is one hundred and seventy, a very satisfactory increase. The Society continues to grow rapidly, and it is believed that large additions will yet be made to its membership. By its works it has amply demonstrated its right to live and to enjoy the favor of all right-thinking people. While a spirit of patriotism and a high regard for the memory of our honored ancestors shall continue, so long this Society will exist and flourish. When these sentiments die, there will be no place for this, or any other society.
